Travel while you can. Too many of us wait until we are almost too old to fulfill our travel dreams and for many, waiting too long can pose health challenges that come with aging thus limiting our travel experience.

As we reach our 60s and beyond, we finally have the time, the money, and the will to fulfill our dream of seeing the Eiffel Tower, Westminster Abbey, the storied castles of Germany, sunny beaches of the Mediterranean and so many other “bucket list” places.

For the curious, the best way to explore any part of our universe is through a guided tour where sometimes you will see and learn so much that it will make your head spin! You'll get every dollar's worth and see places you couldn't see on your own while experiencing the cultures you've dreamed about.

The Chamber Travel Club knows how to travel! We've sent people all over the world since 2010 and yearly plan trips we think our area travelers would like to experience while in the company of like-minded travelers.

As we plan for 2026 and beyond, we are offering unique trips that will have you packing your suitcase and wishing you could leave tomorrow. Time seems to fly these days, and even planning a trip a year out is not too early since tour operators fill their trips quickly – not to mention all those airline seats.

service are at a premium. If you take out cancellation insurance, your trip (less the cost of insurance) will be covered 24 hours prior to departure should an emergency arise. So, you are encouraged to book early and possibly save a few hundred dollars!

We are excited about some of our new trips, most especially Collette's Coastal Mediterranean Journey where you explore the coastlines of Spain, France, and Italy with no more than what may become 12-24 of your closest travel friends.

Departing in mid-March 2026, this fabulous journey starts in Barcelona, Spain, one of Europe's trendiest and most vibrant cities where the focus is on art and architecture. Your art experience begins with a three-night stay at an art-oriented hotel fitting the pulse of this port city.

The seaside towns await your exploration of the Costa Brava region located on one of the most beautiful stretches of coastline in Europe.

Your two-night stay at an upscale spa hotel is perched on a hill with beach access and features incredible views of Costa Brava and the sea. While in this region, you'll explore the scenic villages of Girona and Figueres.

Then it's onto France with two nights in Marseilles, the oldest and second largest city in the country, named Europe's Capital of Culture in 2013. Then onto Nice with a morning stop in Aix-en-Provence, “the city of a thousand fountains.” Your two-night stay allows you a whole day in Nice to explore and relax on your own.

Then it's onto Italy, first stopping in Monte Carlo to explore this beautiful part of the principality of Monaco and pay respect to the permanent resting place of Princess Grace and Prince Ranier III within the cathedral.

With three nights in Genoa at an architecturally acclaimed harbor hotel, you'll have time to explore and savor the food and scenery of the region. From this jumping off point, you'll enjoy a boat excursion to Portofino and a train excursion to Cinque Terre for a full day of exploration.

You'll leave the coastline behind as you travel inland to end your fabulous journey in Tuscany featuring two nights in the beautiful Tuscan countryside in the famed Chianti region. There's even a planned truffle hunt for the venerable hiker. You'll tour Florence and enjoy dining on local specialties at a local restaurant.

Florence is where the tour will end, but the memories of your Mediterranean two-week journey will carry you through the long journey home and for many days to come. This is a perfect journey for those wanting to celebrate a special occasion in a special region.

To view the full itinerary, log on to the Chamber's Travel Club page at www.carsoncitychamber.com.

You have until Aug. 15 to book this incredible 14-night tour and save $300 per person. The $6,999 per person includes four-star plus accommodations, air from Reno, daily breakfast, seven dinners and three lunches, plus airport transfers and all in country transportation and experienced guides.

We always recommend leaving a day earlier so you can shake the jetlag that comes with the long trip so that you start out fresh and eager to explore! If you already know this part of the world, perhaps you'll find another trip that will capture your fancy.

We will have a Collette representative tell us more about all tours at 10:30 a.m. and 2:30 p.m. on Tuesday, Sept. 16. To RSVP, call 775-882-1565.

Note: the discount offered above for the Mediterranean tour will no longer be valid at this time, so book now.
